

All At War

from the Downhere album "Ending Is Beginning"
Germain/Martel

D#m B F#

I'm learning to stand the more that I fall down

D#m B C#

It's the law of inversion, and it's all turned around

D#m B F#

And I'm staggered by the clash inside my soul

D#m B G#m7

So purposed for good but inclined for evil

D#m B F#

It's justice and mercy, the old dichotomies

D#m B C#

All along the front lines of my heart in both doubt and belief

D#m B F#

The sinner and saint, the old arch enemies

C#/F D#m B F#

All at war in me

D#m B F#

I was born depraved but created for the divine

D#m B C#

With death in my bones, in my heart eternal life

D#m B F#

I'd love for Eden, but I'd kill for Rome

D#m B C#

I'm native in a land that is not my home

D#m B F#

You are the beginning, and You are the end

D#m B C#

Into your great reversal, I am born again

D#m B F#

A beautiful redemption, You leverage even sin

D#m B C#

In me your final victory, I know You'll win

F# C#

Into light, from the shadows

F# C#

Into life, from the grave

D#m C#/F

Into love, into love
